

Chapter Three: LET THE LIGHT THROUGH !

Page 25:

6. No The light does not go through anymore

	Opaque	Transparent	Translucent
glass		√
wood	√
Air		√
Tissue paper			√
Water		√
Black construction paper	√

Page 26

- What happens to the one who hides their sins from God? does not prosper.
- What happens to the one who confesses and renounces them? finds mercy

Page 27.

- How was King David feeling? varies (feeling weary and weak)
- When did God forgive him ? when he acknowledges his sins

Page 28

- To whom did Jesus tell this parable? to the self-righteous
- Who was humble, the Pharisee or Tax Collector? The Tax Collector
- Who did God justify, the Pharisee or Tax Collector? The Tax Collector

- Does God want us to boast about our weaknesses or our strengths?
weaknesses
- What does Christ give us then? Christ's power

- ...be transparent with others too, and to pray for one another