

Chapter Nine: IS THIS LIGHT YOUR HOPE?

Page 79

- So God made the first covenant with Noah.
- The covenant stated that He would not destroy all life.
- This gave Noah and his family hope.

- God made a covenant with Abraham, stating that He would make him the father of many nations.
- This gave him hope because it promised him a child.
- God made a covenant with Moses: If the people followed the 10 commandments, God would protect them. This gave them hope.

- The new Covenant with God was to all mankind through Jesus. The bread during communion represents his body given for you. The wine in the cup represents his blood that was shed so that our sins would be forgiven.
- Jesus died for our sins as a sin offering to be the animal sacrifice that will cleanse us.
- Just like the Rainbow gave hope to Noah's family, Jesus gives you and me hope for eternity
